It was just uploaded to sharepoint site yesterday, and my reviewers have it, but I'm still waiting for my password reset. The hard copy should show up in today's FedEx delivery and I'm expecting a CD version to arrive at my house today too. Frances will let me know when it comes in if you want to look at it.

Subject: Williams EBR Status

Hi Carolyn,

Please keep me informed about the status of the Williams Draft EBR, especially if it continues to be delayed or if you spot major problems with it off the bat.

Thanks,
Chris
